Prayer Points

Praise God for the Psalms which give expression to our emotions in God-centred ways. Praise God for this short series, and for the Psalms we touch upon this year, in which we will continue to delve into what it means to live purposeful lives for God in all the highs and trials of life. Pray that we would be encouraged deeply, and that our living for God in Christ will flourish as we take these ancient words and live them out.

Praise God that He is our ultimate and unshakeable satisfaction in life. Pray that we would believe and trust this truth – and that our worldly comforts and satisfactions will continue to pale and fade as we grow in our knowledge and thirst for Jesus. Pray especially for those among us who are wandering in the spiritual wilderness – feeling far and distant from God. Pray that God would renew in them a thirst and hunger for him as they remember his great deeds in the gospel. Pray that we would all cling to God – and encourage each other to persevere in trusting and living for Him. Pray that our fellowship with each other would be driven by this purpose: to prayerfully encourage and spur one another on in faith and good deeds.

Pray for ourselves to keep growing in fellowship with each other. To grow relationships that are deep – full of affection, love, service and care for each other. Pray for our conversations to move beyond the small talk to deeper personal matters and reflections so that we might encourage each other to pursue godly living. Pray for patience and endurance so that our desire to see growth and change would be according to His timing and not our own timeline. Pray for humility – to know when we have thought ill of others or done wrong towards others: to repent and seek forgiveness and reconciliation, that the gospel might shine.

Pray for the many newcomers who have been visiting our church over the past few weeks and months. Pray that they would find a community that is welcoming and encouraging! Pray for the new students coming to Brisbane soon – that they would not only find places to settle, but also plug into our church community to encourage their growth in Christ. Pray for families and workers who are migrating and moving – that they too would settle in and find groups and people among us who will encourage them to walk faithfully in Christ. Pray that we would take up the opportunities to get to know and minister to those who are new among us.

The Men’s Conference 2024: The Road to Glory

We’re all on a road to somewhere, and for men it often looks like a constant journey for success and to achieve some sort of glory in this lifetime. But what if we’re going about it all wrong? What if the road to glory isn’t found in the constant hustle, but in God. When we approach God and revel in the nature of his salvation, we get to know what glory truly looks like.
