Welcome, we're glad you're here!

Humbled By Faith

God's justice brings an end to the sin of the proud and gives hope to those who humble themselves by trusting him.

Prayer Points

Praise God that is a God of justice! Praise God for what we read in Habakkuk 1: That God will not let injustice continue; that His timing may not be ours but is perfect. Praise God that He alone has the power and means to enact perfect and right justice.

Pray for humility to hear God's word. As we approach Habakkuk 2, pray that God's justice and plans will humble the proud. Pray for ourselves, that as we engage with God through his Word that he would not only help us understand but also stand in awe.

Praise God that on the cross justice and mercy meet. Praise God that His people are not recipients of justice! Praise God that mercy and grace are freely available for those who know and trust the work of Jesus. Praise God that in his wisdom he has made a way for his justice to be satisfied, his mercy to be magnified, his grace to be embraced, and his glory to be savoured.

Thank God for Jershon and Annelise's new baby boy! Praise God for this gift of life, and his abundant providence from pregnancy to delivery. Thank God for family – from overseas and within the church – who have been generous and loving in supporting and helping. Pray for endurance as new parents – battling sleepless nights and being overwhelmed. Pray for godly wisdom as they think through the never-ending decision-making that comes with parenthood!
