The Triumph Of Love

Jesus' resurrection assures us that nothing will ever separate us from God and his love.

Prayer Points

Monday: Praise God that Christ is risen!

Give thanks for the sure hope we have in the resurrection of Jesus Christ, especially as we continue to face hardship and suffering in our present lives, and as we mourn the ongoing impact of sin and death. Pray that the resurrection would continue to assure us that God's love for us can never be taken away while we cling to Jesus in faith.

Tuesday: Give thanks for the baptisms held and the opportunity to celebrate new life in Christ.

Give thanks for the way God has graciously worked in the lives of those baptised to bring them to faith and salvation in Jesus. Pray that God would use them to proclaim and bear witness to his gospel. Pray that as a church we would continue to celebrate when Jesus welcomes even one of his lost sheep home, and pray that Jesus would send more workers to proclaim his gospel.

Wednesday: Give thanks for the godly and humble men and women who serve on the Church Council.

Pray for wisdom and discernment as they meet to discuss and make decisions about the strategy and direction of our church. Pray especially for good stewardship of the finances and resources God has given through his people to the church. Pray that these decisions would lead to faithful and fruitful proclamation of the gospel.

Thursday: Pray for those who struggle to feel assured of God's love, whether they are exploring Christianity or they are struggling in their faith. Pray that the reminder of Easter Sunday and the reality of Jesus' resurrection would demonstrate how God's love is so much greater than anything this world can offer, and that nothing in this world can separate us from this love. Pray for those exploring to know this love for themselves, and for those struggling to remember the depths of this love.

Friday: Give thanks for God's work in Anchor Church Melbourne who last month celebrated one year of gospel ministry in the West of Melbourne. Pray for Pastor Quan and the rest of the core team as they lead their church into a second year of preaching the gospel. Pray that many people, particularly the Vietnamese and Asian-Australians who live in the West of Melbourne, would embrace the gospel of Jesus as their only hope for a better life. Pray that Anchor Church would grow to be as culturally diverse as the people around them, and that God would use these people to spread the hope of Jesus to people in Melbourne and beyond.

Saturday: Give thanks for our ministry team leaders who lead their teams joyfully and sacrificially week in and week out. Pray that these team leaders would be envisioned, equipped, and trained to lead their teams at the Leaders' Training Day. Pray for these leaders as they care and support their team members and as they mobilise their teams to serve others. Pray that our teams would work well together in pursuit of our church's vision to be a community of maturing disciples of Jesus, investing in the next generations.

BAPTISM THIS EASTER SUNDAY, 20 April 1pm

Baptism is a celebration of new life, a visible reminder of God's grace to us in Christ. Let's gather as a community this Easter Sunday at 1pm to hear the testimonies and witness the baptisms of a few of our fellow brothers and sisters in Christ.

A light lunch spread will be served prior to the baptism.

12:30pm - Light Lunch served

1:00pm - Testimonies

1:30pm - Baptisms

BLOOM SESSION 1: The Comfort of Identity in Christ 3 May (Sat) 1:30pm - 4:30pm Various Homes

In a world of confusion, God's Word gives crystal clarity as to who we are. Amidst all the uncertainty and instability about who we really are, we get profound stability as we understand the gospel and how through it we become united to Christ, and are 'in Him'. Where fear and anxiety about whether we measure up or are good enough plague us, we'll see how being 'in Christ' brings profound comfort, joy and direction to our lives.

Early registration is much appreciated for planning purposes. Register at sle.church/events
