Why The Mighty Must Fall

Nahum closes by warning that when God exposes the true foundations of human power, collapse is not just deserved, it is also unavoidable.

Prayer Points

Monday: Nahum 3

Praise God that our future is secure because He has secured victory over death and sin. Praise and thank God for the assurance that He sees, exposes and brings down those who devastate others. Pray that God will continually confront our hearts with the reality of His holy judgement, and challenge us to reckon with where true safety lies and which side of His justice we stand on.

Tuesday: Exodus sermon series

As we start a new sermon series in Exodus next week, pray that we'll marvel at and behold God's character that He reveals to His people Israel. Pray that we'll be challenged to grow in gratitude and humility as a response to God's redemption plan seen in his deliverance of Israel to Himself, and more so ultimately in Jesus. Pray for God to grant Pastor Steve wisdom through the Spirit as he preaches through this series.

Wednesday: Life Course

Praise our Almighty God for the Gospel that is His power to save! Pray for the table talkers at the Life Course that is starting up in March. Pray for the gospel to captivate their hearts so that they may live out and proclaim it clearly and lovingly to those attending, and for humility as they acknowledge their insufficiency and to trust God to do his work through them. As the table talkers get trained up before the course, Pray that God will equip and shape them to be faithful servants on fire for the gospel.

Thursday: New University Semester

Thank God for His gift of education and the start of a new university semester. Pray for the new and returning students in our midst that as they settle in, connections will be made to a church community. Pray that they will find a deep and warm church family in SLE and grow in maturity as disciples of Jesus.

Friday: Lunar New Year

Pray for the upcoming Lunar New year festive period that is round the corner, where much visitations and celebrations will be going on. Pray for families as they spend time together that the time of connecting will be uplifting. For those who are away from family, pray that they will find comfort in our Heavenly Father, and that they will find love and warmth in the church family.

Saturday: Christians in China

Pray for our brothers and sisters in China, especially where youth under 18 years old are forbidden to attend church or religious gatherings. Pray for young believers and their parents, that God will raise up a new generation of Chinese Christians who follow Jesus with passionate devotion and steadfastness amidst close scrutiny from the state.
