

Praying for Money and Stuff (Jered C. Wilson)

A prayer for financial provision inspired by these lines from John Piper’s closing message at the Desiring God Pastors Conference this morning: “Jesus says it is hard for a rich man to enter the kingdom of heaven. Why would you want riches? Why make it harder?”

Heavenly Father, Give me neither poverty nor riches, lest I be full and deny you and say, “Who is the Lord?” or lest I be poor and steal and profane your name. Give me just enough, Lord, to nourish my family, to pay my debts and fulfil my obligations and keep my promises and invest in your work according to your will, in supply of all my needs, in accordance with the riches of Christ Jesus.

If you should say “no” and give me poverty, grant me contentment and purest hope and a deeply settled resolution to the sufficiency of your grace. If you should say “no” and give me riches, lead me not into temptation, but deliver me from evil, and do not give me more than I can bear in service to your kingdom. If you send increase of my riches, send increase of my capacity for generosity, and discipline me from greed, covetousness, miserliness, and inhospitality.

Lord, grant me some of my material wants, but not too many, not one more than would distract my joy and treasure from you, if that be none of my wants or all of them. I pray your will be done, even if my will turns out to be a disappointment to my heirs.

In Christ’s name, Amen.

Welcome, we’re glad you’re here!

We are a church family committed to following Jesus Christ as Lord. We do this by getting to know him through his living Word, the Bible, which is why the sermon is the key part of our Sunday services. Find out more about us at www.slechurch.org.au.
